

From Valley to Snowy Peaks!

Ski Slopes of Japan

Jan. 20th, 2015

Hi PMC Members

A number of families decided to explore the ski slopes of Japan and the surrounding sights over the summer break. The PMC Japan tour commenced after touching down in Osaka and a short drive to spend 2 nights in Kyoto, with a touch of snow when arriving in this amazing city.

With our personal Japanese guide we visited the Kyomizudera Shrine and walked up a few quaint streets lined with small shops selling Japanese snack food and souvenirs. There were many locals wearing kimonos as it was part of the new year's celebrations. The shrine was fantastic, situated up on a hill, with the magnificent view of Kyoto, where we experienced the beautiful sunset. The meals were at typical Japanese restaurants with fabulous assortment of food, mind you, sometimes it was also luck with what we chose!!

Our tour around Kyoto took us to visit the Golden Pavillon, Bamboo forest, Tenryu-ji zen Temple.

We then all flew north to the island of Hokkaido for one week of skiing at Niseko. This was simply the best skiing any of the group had experienced. The 5km runs, powder dry snow, night skiing, snowmobile rides to the summit all made this trip so much fun with wonderful memories for all.

Cheers,
